

The future of tokenisation in financial markets

4 November 2026 | 12:15 – 16:30 CET | Stanhope Hotel, 1000 Brussels

Tokenisation is moving rapidly from experimentation to adoption, with the potential to reshape the issuance, trading and settlement of financial assets. As the technology develops and its use expands, the EU and global policy frameworks that will shape and support its evolution will be crucial.

ECRI and Ripple are delighted to invite you to a high-level Policy Summit on the future of tokenisation in financial markets, taking place on Wednesday, 4 November 2026, at the Stanhope Hotel in Brussels.

The Summit will begin at 12:15 with a networking lunch, followed by an afternoon of high-level discussion and exchange exploring the policy, regulatory and market developments that will shape the next phase of tokenisation in Europe and globally.

Confirmed speakers

- Fernando Navarrete MEP, European Parliament
- Peter Kerstens, European Commission
- Esther Wandel, Deutsche Bundesbank
- Tom Mutton, Bank of England
- Clement Roman, French Tresor
- Cassie Craddock, Ripple
- Pablo Portugal, Euroclear
- Alastair Sewell, Aviva
- Coen ter Wal, AFME

Moderated by Judith Arnal, Senior Research Fellow, ECRI and CEPS and Adriana Ennab, Head of Global Policy & Regulation, Global Digital Finance.

Programme

12:15	Welcome buffet lunch
13:15	Policy Summit opens – welcoming remarks
13:30	Keynote speech: Peter Kerstens, European Commission
13:45	Panel 1: Tokenisation: revolution or renovation? Rethinking the future of financial market infrastructure
14:45	Refreshment break
15:10	Fireside chat: Fernando Navarrete MEP
15:30	Panel 2: The role of different forms of digitalised money in supporting a tokenised financial system
16:30	Policy summit closes, with networking refreshments